Hotel Hyundai opened its doors on August 25, 1997 and from the very beginning won popularity among the people of Vladivostok, business travelers and tourists by offering modern comfort and first class facilities.

Convenient location of the hotel in the cultural and business center of Vladivostok will save your time and let you avoid experiencing any traffic-related issues. All the following main places of interest including museums and shopping centers are within walking distance:

- Vladivostok Embankment;
- Arseniev Museum;
- The Marina and Submarine C-56 Museum;
- Vladivostok Railway station - 5 minutes by taxi;
- Vladivostok Airport - 55 minutes by taxi.

The hotel is proud to be able to meet the various needs of its guests. There is a large range of services and facilities which Hotel Hyundai is able to provide to make your business trip successful and your holiday unforgettable.

Very important features of Hotel Hyundai include its independent electric power plant, boiler and water purification systems that make the hotel stand out among its rivals even at the time when these services are unavailable elsewhere.

The hotel is always happy to offer its guests the most convenient and modern facilities: Wi-Fi Internet, business center services, courier services. There are offices of world-known Russian and foreign companies in the hotel building.

The hotel provides 24-hour secured parking lot, which is essential in the city center that is top-heavy with cars and has a shortage of parking places.

Excellent service, multilingual well-trained personnel, highly professional management - we are developing with you and doing our best to exceed your high expectations. We hope that choosing us this time will mark the start of a long-term relationship.
